

Introduction to Sociology (SOC 101) Final Exam Study Guide

Terms:

organic solidarity	conflict theory	anomie role conflict	primary socialization	caste system matrilineal	patriarchal	egalitarian immigration	strain theory	verstehen symbols	feminization of poverty	gender latent function	culture lag	ethnocentrism mores	folkways	social structure intergenerational mobility	intragenerational mobility	bourgeoisie norms	values	ritual family of procreation	family of origin	communism immigration rate	taboo	resocialization feminism	relativism	manifest function capitalism	rational-legal authority	charismatic authority traditional authority	sacred	profane dogma	hidden curriculum	mortality rate morbidity rate	demography	labeling theory self-fulfilling prophecy	stigma	social status systematic methods	empirical investigation	positivism scientific method	mechanical solidarity	generalized other functionalist theory	symbolic interactionism	social stratification achieved status	ascribed status	gender race	role	capitalism socialization	secondary socialization	proletariat master status	minority	ethnic group assimilation	segregation	glass escalator glass ceiling	nuclear family	extended family polygyny	polyandry	polygamy endogamy	homogamy	economy class	social mobility	demographic transition cohort	crime	differential association theory social inequality	gender roles	religion family structure	cultural relativity	deviance culture	society	social diversity

Important Dead People

Karl Marx	Auguste Comte	Emile Durkheim
Alexis de Tocqueville	Max Weber	C. Wright Mills
Robert Merton	George Herbert Mead	Jean Piaget
Edwin Sutherland	W. E. Du Bois	Erving Goffman